

Clarification Statement - Alert on Scam YesStyle Website

YesAsia Holdings and YesStyle wishes to alert its customers and members of the public to be vigilant against a fraudulent scam website using the domain name www.yesstylemall.com.

Recently, we have received enquiries from some of our customers that they have received phishing messages from the said scam website claiming to be YesStyle and requesting customers to "recharge" their account by paying via such website. It has also come to our attention that there are posts and video clips on social media such as Facebook and YouTube which allege that visitors will receive cryptocurrency as gift by registering an account with that scam website. The said scam website, without our prior consent nor approval, displays a business name, trade mark and/or logo which is identical or confusing similar to our business name YesStyle / YesStyle.com and our registered trade marks.

We would like to remind our customers and members of the public that YesAsia Holdings and its subsidiaries (including YesStyle) are NOT connected with or otherwise affiliated / related to the scam website, its owner and the business / services as referred to in the said website. Further, YesAsia Holdings and its subsidiaries have never been engaged in cryptocurrency activities, nor have we authorized any entity to engage in such business on our behalf.

Customers and members of the public are advised to not click any links in messages or emails from that scam website and should not provide any personal or other information to that website. Please be reminded to access the official website of the YesStyle and its services always by typing the website address <https://www.yesstyle.com> and the official YesStyle App available for iOS and Android, and to access the official website of YesAsia Holdings by typing the website address <https://yesasiaholdings.com>.

We have taken steps to investigate and report this matter to the proper authorities. We urge the public to take caution, not to share any links or information about that scam website to prevent further spread of the scam website.
